Elba Council names new cemetery committee

by Ferrin Cox, Publisher

The Elba City Council met Monday evening and appointed a new cemetery committee and a new member to the Elba Industrial Board.

Paul Morrow was appointed to a six year term on the Industrial Board.

Four members were named to the cemetery committee, one from four council districts, District One councilman L. M. Burch will recommend a member at a later meeting.

Appointed to staggering terms of up to four years were Patsy Meek, Peggy Stroud, Pam Maddaloni and Francis Pryor.

The council accepted the recommendation of Mayor James

Grimes and agreed to sign with National Security Insurance Co. for the group term life insurance on city employees. The mayor said this was more insurance and at a better price than that from American Pioneer Life. Benefits for dependents is also improved.

The council voted to sell a surplus jet washer to the town of Samson for $4,800.

Rezonning recommendations from the Elba Zoning Board were accepted, and two advertised rezonings were approved. One is the old National Security Building on Troy Highway. The other is a section of downtown on Davis Street.

MDI was granted approval to change two days of residential

City of Elba awarded $10,000 federal business development grant

Congressman Terry Everett, Republican-Enterprise, announced Tuesday the approval of a $10,000 Rural Business Opportunity Grant for the City of Elba to perform a local feasibility study to attract new business.

This federal grant approved Tuesday will help the city pay for a study to explore ways to properly develop the city industrial park to meet the needs of new industry," Congressman Everett said.

"In addition to the $10,000 federal grant, it is my understanding that the City of Elba will also contribute approximately $7,000 to help fund the business development study.

"I want to commend Mayor James Grimes and local officials for their continual efforts to seek new businesses and local jobs," Everett added. "This federal grant approval is one more positive step in their efforts to bolster local employment and enhance the quality of life in Elba."

The $10,000 federal grant was approved by the USDA's Rural Development Agency in Washington, D.C.

Storm shelter demonstration set for today at Farm Center complex

The Coffee County Emergency Management Agency has coordinated a storm shelter demonstration to take place in the parking lot of the Coffee County Farm Center located in New Brockton, Ala.

A vendor from Danville, Ala. will set up the demonstration model of an in-ground, polyethylene storm shelter on Thursday (TODAY), April 26, beginning at approximately 10 a.m. The unit will remain on display until mid-afternoon the same day. All interested individuals are invited to stop by and check out the shelter.

The Alabama Emergency Management Agency has requested a ruling from the Federal Emergency Management Agency (FEMA) as to whether the prefabricated storm shelters will qualify as part of the recently announced FEMA initiative to provide federal assistance money for individual storm shelters. FEMA has not ruled on the request, however, a favorable ruling is expected.

Although this demonstration features one of the many prefabricated models available, it does not imply any endorsement of any storm shelter vendor by either the Coffee County Emergency Management Agency or the Coffee County Commission.

Questions concerning this demonstration may be addressed to the Coffee County Emergency Management Agency at 894-5415.

Patrick Norris joins 12th Judicial Circuit DA's office as investigator

District Attorney Mark E. Fuller, 12th Judicial Circuit, recently announced his appointment of Patrick R. Norris as an investigator with the Office of the District Attorney, 12th Judicial Circuit, which includes Coffee and Pike counties.

The appointment was made effective January 29, 2001 and Investigator Norris has spent most of his first month in training. In making the announcement, Mr. Fuller said, "I have been impressed with Patrick's work in the field of law enforcement and look forward to his working with my office."

A native and resident of Elba, Norris received his Bachelor of Science degree in Criminal Justice from Troy State University. In addition to Norris' formal education, he brings with him over twelve years of law enforcement experience and has accrued several hundred hours of attendance at various law enforcement seminars.

Norris served with the City of Elba Police Department and also served as Chief Deputy with the Coffee County Sheriff's Department. He comes to his new position from the Alabama Department of Conservation Enforcement Division.

Patrick lives in Elba with his wife, Julie, and their triplets, Aaron, Brooklyn and Christen. Concerning his appointment, Patrick commented, "I appreciate the confidence the District Attorney has placed in me and I look forward to working with all law enforcement and court personnel."

garbage routes. Homeowners will get ample notification.

The council voted to install a key system on the city fuel tanks to better control gasoline and diesel usage. This will cost from $5,000 to $6,000.

A four camera surveillance system will also be installed at the city barn at a cost of less than $2,000.

Grimes said city crews would do the erosion control work at the industrial spec barn. He said the cost would only be a small portion of what contracting the work would cost.

Cost estimates on some street paving were given to council members Monday evening. Grimes asked them to study the estimates and be ready to make a decision within a few weeks. He said it would be impossible to do all the needed paving, but the streets on the estimate were some of the ones in worse shape.

A brief review of the city's financial statement showed an expected drop in sales tax, but also a drop in expenses by several departments. City officials are pleased with it so far.

Commissioners hear update on paving projects

by Marvin McLwain, Editor

The Coffee County Commission's bi-monthly meeting Monday, with no new or old business on the agenda, was a short one. It consisted mainly of general business from the county engineer, county administrator and commissioners.

County Engineer Randy Tindell requested a resolution be passed by the commission to approve the resurfacing of Co. Rds. 124 and 702. His request was honored.

He also asked for and received permission from the commissioners to enter into an agreement with J. M. Wood Auction Company to sell three pieces of equipment: two pans (earth moving equipment) and a small bulldozer.

Later in the session, Tindell was asked by Commissioner Kayo Lewis to give the commission an update on the resurfacing project. He did so, but was quick to point out that he was doing so without the aid of his project maps (Tindell was not aware that he was going to be asked to give an update prior to the meeting).

Tindell told commissioners that the resurfacing of Co. Rds. 210, 205, 409, 412, 459, 462 and 724 has been completed. Plans call for work to begin on Co. Rd. 643 next week.

Plans have been submitted to the Alabama Department of Transportation for the resurfacing of Co. Rds. 109, 119, 305 and 315. These are expected to be approved in the near future.

THREE-CAR COLLISION. Last Thursday, shortly after 3 p.m., three vehicles collided at the intersection of AL Hwy. 203 (bypass), Martin Luther King Drive and Taylor Mill Road (MLK Drive) turns into Taylor Mill Road when it crosses the bypass. One victim was taken to Elba General Hospital by a unit from Coffee County EMS. According to reports, a 2000 Mitsubishi being driven by Kathy Lynn Tucker, 35, of Elba was traveling east on Taylor Mill Road, entered the intersection, and was struck by a 2000 Mitsubishi SUV being driven by Michelle Disotell, 28, of Elba. Disotell was traveling south on AL 203. Both Tucker and Disotell were lone occupants of their respective vehicles. A third vehicle, a 1992 Pontiac sedan, driven by Diane Pruitt Coleman, 47, of Elba, was stopped at the stop sign (headed west) on MLK. The Pruitt vehicle was struck by the Tucker vehicle after colliding with Disotell's SUV. Deanna Hilk, 24, of Elba, a passenger in the Pruitt vehicle was the only victim taken to EGH by ambulance; however, other victims in the wreck later went to the hospital on their own. Reportedly, no one was seriously injured. The accident was investigated by Ptl. Robert Fulton.

Presently, plans are being drawn up for submission to the DOT on the resurfacing of Co. Rds. 308, 428, 610 and 661.

Tindell told commissioners that the contract to resurface Co. Rds. 110, 111, 533 and 617 will be let (awarded) on Friday (tomorrow) with construction scheduled to begin in mid-June. The contract on Co. Rd. 636 is scheduled for next month's (May 25) letting and work should begin in mid-July. In the other roads mentioned, Tindell said he was hoping for one group to have a July letting with a mid-September start construction date. On the remainder of the roads, he is hoping for an August letting and a mid-October construction start.

County Administrator Wilson Mobley noted that he had several items of business that needed to be addressed by the commission.

The commission gave its approval to follow the recommendation made by EMA.

The administrator asked if it was the desire of the commission to continue the computer maintenance service agreement with Gemini for another year. The company has been responsible for the upkeep and maintenance of the county's data processing system for the past four years.

During the discussion of the motion to do so, Commissioner Jim Thompson commented,

"We all need to make a concerted effort to start working on next year [consideration of the computer service agreement] well in advance. I think we all agree that we are paying them [Gemini] a lot of money and maybe we can figure out a way to hold that cost down."

Finally, Mobley asked for and received permission to send out bid requests on the janitorial

$6.1 million federal loan & grant approved for Coffee County Water Authority project

by Marvin McLwain, Editor

Congressman Terry Everett, R-Enterprise, recently announced the approval of a $3,512,600 loan and a $2,675,000 grant for the Coffee County Water Authority in New Brockton. The major federal loan and grant funds will enable the Coffee County Water Authority to expand water service to rural residents and farms.

"Adequate water service is necessary for both quality of life and local economic development and I am pleased to announce the approval of this USDA Rural Development loan and grant for the Coffee County Water Authority," Congressman Everett said.

"These funds will help the Coffee County Water Authority establish a county-wide water system that will include 155 miles of water main, two water wells, and two storage tanks," Everett added.

"This significant new infrastructure project will serve at least 1,083 residential customers and 20 poultry farms in Coffee County when complete," Everett observed.

"I was pleased to support this federal funding request and I wish to congratulate water authority chairman James Paulk and his staff for their hard work in securing these vital funds which will make a difference for many residences and farms in our area."

According to Dr. Paulk, the project consists of two phases. Phase I is to bring water service to everyone south of U. S. Highway 84. Phase II will make water service available to residents north of U. S. Highway 84.

Even with the approval of the grant, Paulk said there is still time for county residents to sign up for the water service. Residents who are not already served by a water system are eligible to participate in the project. Those who have not signed up still have 10-14 days to come by the County Commission Office in New Brockton and sign a water user's agreement.

The USDA RD loan of $3,512,600 is for 40 years at 4.75 percent interest.

Anyone having questions concerning the water service project may call Dr. Paulk at 894-6366.

BRAINSTORMS

With Ferrin Cox

It is not hard to find sympathy around Elba for the people living along the flooding Mississippi River. Those people up river are in trouble right now and as you look down toward the Gulf of Mexico, you can see people who can only just sit and wait for when they know is coming within the next month. While in Coffee County, it is the awesome power of the Pea River that puts us on our knees, they see the Mississippi, which is a thousand times more powerful. Those folks have seen it happen before and some of them have built on stilts, others have built levees, etc. but the Mississippi finds ways to climb higher and get over and around the barricades.

Of course the town of Davenport, Iowa, has no levee because they want to see the beautiful river and benefit from the tourist visits. That is their choice, but it doesn't seem like a real smart decision right now. The water is seeping through their temporary sand bags today and may soon challenge the height of their barricade. Really is, of course, in the eyes of the beholder, but to us the Pea River looks like good sliding down alongside the OUISIDE of that beautiful land levee. That comment is not made without extensive exposure to the alternative, so there is no need for anyone to attempt to change our opinion. Having ridden down the streets of Elba on a boat powered by outboard motors on two occasions, and up and down the traditional Pea River hundreds of times, the latter wins hands down.

The Elba Chamber of Commerce folks are going all out for the governor's visit to Elba this Thursday afternoon. He is coming to formally announce another step toward improving the integrity of the Elba and Geneva levees. Our legislators are indicating he may even get to actually sign the legislative bill authorizing the funding of the levee repairs and several other important Alabama projects. That bill has overwhelmingly passed the House and is on fast track in the Alabama Senate. The Chamber will be ready either way. They are decorating with miniature levees including sandbagged breaks, etc. The "man" will know he was anticipated and appreciated when he leaves going back to Montgomery. City officials from Geneva are participating in this joint announcement and indicate they are bringing some happy and appreciative citizens with them for the announcement.

Last week this column was denouncing the legislative bills attempting to get video gambling into the four Alabama dog tracks while making them illegal in all other places. Tuesday of this week the Alabama Supreme Court ruled not only that that would be unconstitutional, but also that the video poker machines now sprouting up all around Alabama are also very illegal. We think this means that the efforts to pass bills through the legislature legalizing video gambling at the dog tracks are dead unless they have the nerve or billheadness, to present the people of Alabama with the opportunity to vote on it as a constitutional amendment. . . . but remember the lottery vote just months ago where EVERYBODY was going to be winners fabled. Therefore how could they expect to pass such a bill openly restricting ownership (and profits) to four very tight groups.

service for the Enterprise Courthouse. The present contract ends on May 1, 2001.

Mobley brought it to the attention of the commission that the date of the second bi-monthly meeting of the commission in May falls on Memorial Day, May 28th. The commissioners voted to change the meeting to the next day, Tuesday, May 29, at 9:00 a.m.

He also reminded the commission of the vacancy that exists on the South Central Alabama Mental Health Board, and that this appointment needs to be made in the near future.

During the "general business from commissioners' session, Mobley confirmed to Commission Chairperson Linda Westbrook that the sheriff's department had taken delivery of two patrol cars recently purchased off state bid.

Commissioner Thompson reminded commissioners of the Senior Games to be held Friday, May 4, beginning at 8:30 a.m. on the campus of Enterprise State Junior College. He encouraged the members of the commission to attend this event, if at all possible.

Commissioner Robert Stephens, after commenting that Geneva County has four members on the Enterprise-Coffee-

Geneva Economic Development Board (ECGEDB), made a motion that the commission ask that Coffee County be given an additional seat on the board. In addition to that, the motion further stipulated that the commission representation on this board be rotated among the commissioners beginning with District 7, 6, 5 etc. Commissioner Bernest Brooks seconded Stephens motion.

During the discussion of Stephens' motion, Commissioner Tom Grimsley commented that he would like to have Mickey Simmons' (ECGEDB's executive director) input before acting on Stephens' motion. He made a motion, seconded by a Commissioner, Thompson, to table the matter until Simmons can be contacted, it passed.

In other items of business, the following actions were taken:

• Reappointed Commissioner Westbrook to represent the commission on the Enterprise-Coffee-Geneva Economic Development Board through October 2001.

• Commissioner Stephens made a motion (which passed) that if the county has a spare lawn mower, it is to be sold at public auction - after proper advertisement - during a commission meeting.

Stephens then made a motion that either Simmons appear before the commission to respond to the matter or Chairperson Westbrook contact Simmons on the matter and report back to the commission on his response. The motion was seconded by Westbrook and passed unanimously.

• In his eighteen years of doing ambulance billing, it has always been my work ethic to withhold any invoices or statements if I know that the patient has passed away. After a period of time, I will mail an invoice when I feel that the family is ready to handle these sort of matters.

I would like to urge Mr. Gatin, or any other citizen which may have a hilling issue to call me personally to resolve the matter. As a business owner, I feel that resolving an issue such as this is more appropriate rather than using the courts to make unfounded complaints without first inquiring about the validity of a bill.

THE PRESSBOX

By Ricky Mularz, Sports Editor

Our girls have been playing ball ever since they were old enough to hold a bat, and over the years we have had a few problems such as forgetting one's glove or bat, or maybe even breaking a shoe lace right before a game. Last week we encountered a new problem; however, when one of our girls complained that her jersey had "static cling" and was bothering her when she tried to loosen up. Someone at the park came up with some hair spray that solved the problem, but the next day we made certain we got some of those little sheets for the dryer that prevent such problems. I guess the education of a parent never ends!

SWINGS AND MISSES...

* The Elba Tigers came back to life at just the right time last week and closed out the season with three straight wins to make the Class 3A playoffs and enter the playoffs with a 6-10 record, and on a roll. The Tigers had struggled both at the plate and in the field for much of the season, but last week hit the ball well, scored runs and backed up their pitchers. The win over Pike County got the Tigers into the playoffs. However, perhaps the highlight of the week was the 11-10 win over 4A neighbor Opp. Elba blew a big lead to let the Bobcats go ahead late, but the Tigers rallied and pushed ahead three runs in the sixth inning to grab back the win. The late-season surge should carry over into the playoffs, and should make it easier for the coaches to make the players believe that they have a good team when the season rolls back around next spring.

 The Elba Lady Tigers pushed their record to 19-7 last week as they won five of six games during the week and then went 2-2 in a weekend tournament. The Lady Tigers are a team to watch when they hit the ball, and that was just what they did in the middle of the week as they outscored Laverne and Zion Chapel 53-3 in two double-headers to post four big wins. While the 53 runs was an average of over 13 runs per game, the 3 runs runs was just as impressive. It is hard to lose when one's opponent scores less than a run a game, and maybe the Elba girls will realize that even if they are not hitting the ball, they can win with defense. Anyway, the Lady Tigers have been a pleasant surprise this season, and should have many more wins left to grab.

 I was at Hawkins-Williams Park two nights last week and over at Legion Field on Friday night, and each and every night was thrilled at the number of fans at all the games. The bleachers on both sides of the field were packed, and supporters in lawn chairs circled the backstops. Their presence made a difference to the players, and their cheers were music to the ears of the youngsters that were on the field. I can assure you as a former player, coach and parent, the children need and deserve your support!

 While on the subject of rec ball, the girls softball leagues opened their last pitch season last week, and all the players seemed content with the change to the new game. It will take a while for the pitchers to learn the proper techniques of pitching fast and accurate, and it will take the batters a while to learn to hit the faster and lower pitches. However, softball has gone to fast pitch just about everywhere, and our youngsters won't get left behind. For those of you that aren't excited about the change...give it a little time, maybe it will grow on you.

 Montgomery Mayor Bobby Bright made a big deal out of the city's plans to join an independent professional baseball league at an announcement last week, and while there is no doubt the city fathers hope it will simply be the first step toward bringing minor league baseball back to Montgomery, there are pros and cons on what is coming this summer. The Montgomery team will play at Patterson Field, which is a plus, but there will be only four other teams in the league (Tyler, Texas; Hattiesburg, Mississippi; Baton Rouge, Louisiana; and Ft. Worth, Texas), and that doesn't exactly get the old baseball juices flowing when one stops and thinks about the caliber of ball that will be played. I know that there is a very successful independent league up in the Midwest and have heard a great deal about the St. Paul Saints, but I will have to adopt a wait and see attitude before I plan on making any trips to see any games.

 In closing, am I the only one out there that thinks the reason the Atlanta Braves aren't winning and aren't scoring any runs is that they don't have that good team? For the past couple of seasons the Braves have been willing to simply ride their veteran pitching staff and hope that they could score enough runs to win more than their share of games. That has been the case, but this season the Braves "no name" hitters have not hit the ball at all, and the announcers seem puzzled when that over the last 16 games their team has scored only 26 runs. Atlanta was the first choice in recent years for free agents Ken Griffey and Barry Bonds, and there is no doubt they could have signed Alex Rodriguez if they had been willing to get up off their pocket book. Instead, players like Wes Helms, Rico Brogna, Kevin Lockhart and Brian Jordan keep coming to the plate, and getting nothing done. Their lack of hitting isn't a mystery to me!

Area 2 win puts Tigers in playoffs

Elba Tigers survive 4-3 over Pike County

The Elba Tigers wrapped up a playoff berth Thursday afternoon with an exciting 4-3 win over the Pike County Bulldogs, in Elba.

Pike County left the bases loaded in the first inning and Elba stranded two base runners in the second as neither team was able to get on the scoreboard. However, the Tigers broke through in the fourth and scored four runs to grab a 4-0 advantage in the crucial area 2 battle.

Consecutive one-out singles by Jason Curran, Brandon Salter and Marcus Henderson gave the Tigers a 1-0 lead, while Rick Smith, Clay Sutley, Derrick Thomas and Matthew Curran all delivered two-out singles as Elba plated 4 runs and took control early with a 4-0 lead.

Pike County was down to its final three outs still trailing 4-0 as the seventh inning got underway, but got a breath of life early in the inning as the first two Bulldogs batters were hit by a pitch. A pop-up to Salter on the mound left the Tigers two outs from the win, but Pike County wasn't about to quit and plated three runs as the next three batters all hit sharp singles to cut the Elba lead to 4-3.

Salter struck out the next Bulldog batter, but then walked the next batter to load the bases with two outs. The Tigers got the final out on a slow roller to first, and Elba survived with the exciting 4-3 win.

Brandon Salter and Clay Sutley both got 2 hits to lead Elba at the plate, while Brandon Salter got the win as he pitched seven innings and allowed 3 runs on 9 hits, while striking out 10 batters.

More than 2,000 new and used vehicles, RVs and boats ranging from $4,000 to $100,000 will be available at special discount prices and low credit union financing. Dealers participating this year are: Bondy's Toyota, Boyd's Marine, Ed Sherling Ford, Enterprise Mitsubishi, Gilland Pontiac-GMC, Jack Ingram Motors, Martin Ingram RV Center, Medford Isuzu, Mitchell Mazda-Lincoln-Mercury, Mitchell Nissan, Nichols Oldsmobile, Rahal-Schmitt Buick-Mercedes.

This is Southeast Alabama's largest auto, RV, boat show and sale. "This event is not only a service to our credit union members, but also a service to the community," said Jim Mitchell, President/CEO of Army Aviation Center Federal Credit Union. "We're expecting a great turnout and we hope to see everyone there."

NEGOTIATING'S ALREADY BEEN DONE!

The absolute lowest price each participating dealer is willing to sell their cars, trucks, vans, RVs or boats to members is posted on each unit's window along with the regular price. Your credit union loan officers will have verified invoices prior to sale date.

NO WAITING! FAST DELIVERY

All units are serviced and ready for immediate delivery. Extra cars, trucks, vans, recreational vehicles and boats are ordered by dealers for this great members-only private sale. Come early, choose from the largest selection ever assembled in South Alabama.

YOU SAVE EVEN MORE!

All loans at your participating credit unions are simple interest. This means you are charged interest only for the number of days you keep the loan. There are no prepayment or pay-off penalties like you will find at many banks and finance companies who use the "rule of 78s" to compute interest.

TRADE-INS WELCOME!

Bring your present vehicle to trade on the spot!

APPLY FOR PRE-APPROVED LOANS!

Members planning to attend the Special Sale are urged to come by or call their nearest credit union office for pre-arranged financing.
